

You're invited to an Executive Roundtable on Flourishing for Organizational Success with our special guest, Steven French.

*Gordon Watson
Chairman,
WFO*

*Steven French
Founder & Executive Chairman,
Lx Partners*

*Karen Seymour
Chief Impact Officer,
WFO*

We invite you to join an interactive, in-person conversation about fostering flourishing in the workplace with:

- Steven French, who brings global perspectives on flourishing at work
- Executive leaders from US-based organizations (joining via Zoom) highlighting their flourishing journeys
- Gordon Watson and Karen Seymour, sharing actionable insights from the World Flourishing Organization

Steven is host of the annual Flourishing at Work Summit at Harvard University, mentor to senior executives, and global convener of influential leaders. He connects leaders with researchers at the Harvard Human Flourishing Program, to help them consider how to advance business sustainability and success.

Steven's work spans small businesses, non-profits and large brands across industries such as hospitality, entertainment, healthcare, and financial services.

Together, we will explore how flourishing can become both a new measure, and a driving force of organizational and societal success.

When: Thursday, November 20, 2025. 9:00 am - 10:30 am

Venue: TBC (will be in Quarry Bay or Central)
